A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and cheerful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs, and the only one every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free, on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. "Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. The "Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of their medicines be compared to known facts. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has the badge of honesty on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

A Much-married Woman.

"Miss" Augusta Bruning, cook—fair, fat, but not 40—was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court in New York, yesterday on a charge of bigamy, having married no less than four husbands in a short time. Three of her husbands were in court, but did not look at her. They expressed regret at the absence of the other because it broke up a quartet. The woman waived examination and was held in $500 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Augusta Bruning began her matrimonial career 10 years ago by marrying Henry Koehler in Waterbury, Ct. She soon got tired of him, however, and then went to New York.

"I just had to marry them," she said in court yesterday, in explanation of her marriages. "I could not get rid of them. They pestered me and bothered me, and I finally married them. I suppose I would have had more trailing after me if I had not been arrested."

Soon after leaving Koehler she met Philip Feltzberger, husband No. 2, whom she has "almost forgotten." "I was employed at 131 Avenue B," said Feltzberger, in telling of his courtship.

"One day this woman moved in and I helped her put up a mirror. Looking into the glass, I saw that our faces were close together, and said: 'Doesn't that look lovely?' and she replied that it did. Then she suggested that we get married; so we did." Otto Miller was husband No. 3. He lives at 206 east Thirteenth street. She entered his home as a cook and went out as a wife. While at the Miller home she met Frank Newman, and a short acquaintance culminated in marriage. Becoming suspicious of his wife's frequent absence from home, Newman followed her one day about two weeks ago and saw her meet Miller. Her arrest followed a conference of husbands Nos. 2, 3 and 4.

Another Strike Threatened.

Every railroad in the country on which members of the Switchmen's Union of America are employed received yesterday from that organization a demand for increased wages and an eight-hour day. With the demand was also presented notification that unless satisfactory terms are reached a strike vote will be taken by the union within two weeks.

Strengthened by the promised support of engineers and firemen, one branch of the switchmen employed in the Chicago railroad yards went before officials of the various roads yesterday and presented the demand.

At a mass-meeting of yard employees held Wednesday night it was reported the western roads centering in Chicago will tender the men a compromise offer amounting to an increase of two cents an hour in pay. The offer represents eight cents an hour less than demanded.

"It may be stated definitely," said Grand Master Hawley, "that the offer will not be accepted by the switchmen."

The securing of the engineers and firemen as allies had much to do with the stiffening of the switchmen's determination. The engineers, who are members of the Engineers and Firemen's Brotherhood, on Wednesday presented demands to the railroads all over the country. The demands apply solely to men working on switching engines, and do not affect engineers or firemen on "through" runs.

As an advance over the present scale of 31 cents, the engineers asked for 50 cents an hour, while the firemen expressed their desire for a raise from 18 cents to 25 cents an hour.

Something went wrong with the mass-meeting in Madison Square Garden, New York, last night, which was advertised as a "labor ratification meeting to endorse the candidacy of William Randolph Hearst for governor," and as "labor's tribute to Hearst."

It started dimly, woke up a bit when Mr. Hearst entered the Garden, and then petered out, melted away, broke up noisily while Mr. Hearst was talking. He had scarcely started his speech when the rush for the doors commenced.

The members of various union labor organizations which had paraded up Broadway and into the Garden, carrying flags and transparencies, were the first to break for the doors. All over the big building there was a pounding and shuffling of feet as the audience disintegrated and headed for the exits. Mr. Hearst finished his speech in a din and confusion that made it impossible for any but those who sat in rows of seats near the speaker's platform, to hear what he was saying.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bao, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leubbeater & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Lonely Life

The Tragic Confession of a Spinster, Who Realizes That No Fame or Wealth Can Compensate for the Solitude of Her Life.

In this article the author, whose name for obvious reasons we are not at liberty to disclose, drops for once the mask which she in common with other "Bachelor Maids," is accustomed to turn to the world.

Though no longer young, she frankly says she longs for the companionship of a husband and the care of children. The circumstances which have kept from her the happiness which these blessings bring are stated with the same directness which characterizes the whole article. It is the life-story of a "successful" woman, a drama of real life in which the last act is a tragedy.

Young Women Capture a Thief.

An attempt to steal a stenographer's pocketbook on Nassau street in front of the Tract Society Building in New York, yesterday afternoon, caused a sensation. Miss Frances Kern and Miss Alice Segers, of Brooklyn, are employed in the same office. They were on their way from lunch when a man grabbed Miss Kern's purse and passed it to a second man.

The first man got away, but before the other could make a move Miss Kern had two hands gripped in his collar, and Miss Segers, with an utter disregard for expense, was wearing out a silver-handled umbrella on his head and shoulders. Vainly the captured man writhed and kicked to be free. He could neither shake off Miss Kern nor dodge the avenging umbrella of Miss Segers.

It only takes about half a minute to gather a crowd of 3,000 people in Nassau street in the daytime, and so when Policeman Hanlon got there he had to club his way through a huge, cheering mob before he could reach the three actors in the drama. He relieved the young women of their captive and searched him. In his pocket was Miss Kern's purse.

Hanlon led the man to the Centre Street Police Court, with a huge crowd tagging behind. The two girls went along to testify against him. He told the magistrate he was Ben Middlebury, and was held for General Sessions in bonds of $5,000.
